- The Auburn Bay Residents Association (ABRA) must see a copy of the Certificate of Title for this property before this form will be processed.
- ABRA fees must be in good standing before privileges can be transferred to your tenants.
- Either the owner or the tenant(s) can have the ABRA membership, not both.
- The tenant(s) must bring in their Tenancy Agreement (if applicable) to the administration office as proof of residency before their picture will be taken for their permanent membership card. If a driver's license or government bill is shown with the Auburn Bay address and the tenants name on it, a temporary card will be issued.
- It is the owner's responsibility to give written notice to the ABRA of any tenancy changes/updates.
- It is the owner's responsibility to give written notice to the ABRA if he/she would like correspondence (including invoices) sent to an alternate mailing address.

Alternate Mailing Address: _____

- I/We are aware that my/our access for the AuburnBayRA.ca website will be de-activated.
- I/We have made the tenant aware of all of the rules and regulations of the ABRA.
