Junior Camp Counselor

PART-TIME, SEASONAL, SUMMER 2025

The Auburn Bay Residents Association (ABRA) is seeking responsible, enthusiastic, and patient youth (ages 14+) from Auburn Bay and surrounding communities to join our Junior Camp Counselor Program! This is a part-time position ideal for those looking to gain valuable job experience while having fun and making a difference in the lives of younger campers.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Reporting to the Program Manager & the Summer Camp Coordinators, the Junior Camp Counselors will be responsible for:

- Assisting camp counselors with setting up and cleaning up crafts, games, and activities.
- Helping engage and supervise younger campers in a positive and supportive manner.
- Leading small group activities under the guidance of senior staff.
- Acting as a role model by demonstrating responsibility, teamwork, and leadership.
- Ensuring campers have a fun, safe, and inclusive experience.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ages 14+ and eager to gain leadership and job experience.
- Friendly, enthusiastic, and comfortable working with children.
- Responsible, reliable, and willing to take initiative.
- Able to work collaboratively in a team setting.
- No previous experience required – just a great attitude and a willingness to learn!

WHY JOIN?

- Gain hands-on leadership and teamwork experience.
- Build your resume with real-world job skills.
- Receive a certificate of completion & potential letter of recommendation.
- Have fun while making a positive impact in your community!
