Summer Camp Counselor

FULL-TIME, SEASONAL, SUMMER 2025

The Auburn Bay Residents Association (ABRA) is seeking reliable, enthusiastic, and experienced individuals to serve as Summer Camp Counselors for our 2025 Summer Camp season. This role requires a passion for working with children and creating a fun, inclusive, and engaging camp experience. Summer Camp Counselors will be responsible for facilitating activities, ensuring camper safety, and fostering a positive environment for both campers and fellow staff members.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Reporting to the Program Manager & Summer Camp Coordinators, Summer Camp Counselors will:

- Work collaboratively with other camp staff to plan and execute daily activities.
- Foster a positive and inclusive environment for campers and co-workers.
- Lead and actively participate in all scheduled camp activities.
- Adapt activities as needed to meet the needs of all campers.
- Maintain clear and professional communication with parents before and after camp sessions.
- Provide active supervision and guidance, ensuring camper safety at all times.
- Act as role models, demonstrating healthy choices and emotional maturity.
- Ensure a safe and organized environment, including regular headcounts and proper staff distribution among campers.
- Assist with daily camp setup and cleanup, as well as end-of-season cleanup (week of August 25, 2025).
- Support ABRA special events as needed.
- Encourage camper engagement by involving all children, especially those who may be hesitant to participate.
- Facilitate team-building activities and camp spirit initiatives such as chants and games.
- Assist with inventory and supply management to ensure all necessary materials are available and well-organized.
- Resolve minor conflicts between campers in a positive and constructive manner.
- Perform other duties as reasonably required.
